Improving cash flow checklist

if option for you	Strategy for improving cash flow	Tips and more information	Notes
Smooth out cash flow
	Negotiate new due dates for bills to better line up with when you get income.	Check with businesses you have had a long-standing relationship with first.
	Negotiate splitting a monthly payment into two smaller payments.	For example, if a $700 rent payment is due the first of the month, see if you can make a $350 payment on the 1st and a $350 on the 15th.
	Avoid large, lump sum or periodic payments by making monthly payments—car insurance and taxes, for example.	You may have to pay a small fee to make this arrangement, but it may make handling these payments more manageable.
	Set up a savings account and automatically deposit the monthly amount of large, lump sum payments into the account so you are prepared when they are due.	To do this you need regular income, a bank or credit union account, or a reloadable prepaid debit card.
	Explore level payment plans for utilities.	This is especially important in extreme climates—with high heating bills in the winter or high cooling bills in the summer. You often have to be a customer in good standing to qualify for these programs. Check with your local utility providers.
	Check to see if you qualify for an energy assistance program.	Ask for a referral to the agency in your community that manages energy assistance programs.

Financial Empowerment

	Seek credit counseling or explore debt consolidation.	If you have many debts and good credit, consider credit counseling exploring debt consolidation with a bank or credit union. This can make managing your cash flow easier because the monthly payment may be smaller – but it may take you longer to completely pay off the debts and cost more in the long run. Be sure you understand the terms and are not paying more interest with your new loan. See the Resources list at the end of the module for credit counseling links.
	Refinance your car or home for lower interest rates if possible or explore extending the time you will repay the loan.	Be sure to do the math to ensure the new rate (including the fees) really does save you money over time. While it may cost you more in the long run, it may make monthly payments more manageable.
	Check to make sure your withholding enough tax with your employer.	This can help ensure you do not end up with a large income tax bill because your withholding was too low.
	If you have student loans, check to see if you have repayment options.	See if you qualify for income-based repayment or other programs. http://studentaid.ed.gov/repay-loans/

Cut out spending
	Review television, internet, phone, and cell phone plans.	Check with your provider about bundling and lower cost plans or discontinue cable. Check to see if you qualify for a "Lifeline" phone rate. Visit http://www.fcc.gov.
	Review insurance and check to make sure you have the right deductibles for auto and home insurance.	Check to see if moving insurances to one company will save you money, and check for other discounts.
	Find ways to save on energy: Turn off and unplug unused electric appliances. Insulate and use weather stripping around doors and windows. Set thermostat higher in summer and lower in winter.	Check to see if eligible for weatherization programs or other incentives.
	Eliminate online video or music pass membership.
	Eliminate gym/health club or discount store memberships if not using regularly.
	Eliminate credit monitoring services if you are paying for them.
	Pay bills and renew license and registration on time to avoid late fees.
	Return library materials, rented DVDs, etc. on time.

Financial Empowerment

	Access community resources for some living expenses.	See if you qualify for community food programs, clothing closets, transportation voucher programs, childcare subsidies, etc.
